The Neely Sk8 Challenge

Jan/Feb 2011

The Cam Neely Foundation for Cancer Care and the Boston Bruins Foundation are working together to host a family oriented fundraising event, The Neely Sk8 Challenge, presented in 2010 by Liberty Mutual. The 2nd annual SK8 will be held at FMC Arenas in various towns around Boston. All proceeds from the SK8 go directly to projects at Tufts Medical Center's Floating Hospital for Children's cancer center. In 2010, we raised over $120,000 that directly benefited children battling cancer and their families.

Event: The skate-a-thon is for skates of all ages, whether you're a figure skater, hockey player or a casual skater! Each skater creates their own fundraising page through our site where they can add a picture and a story about why they are raising money. This fundraising page will track all donations that your friends and family are making towards your efforts.

Awards: There will be awards for the highest fundraisers such as tickets to a Bruins game, meet and greets with the Boston Bruins, rides on the zamboni, autographed Neely jerseys as well as raffle prizes throughout the event at the rinks.

So get your skates sharpened and start spreading the word to your friends and family! Sign up for our email notifications to make sure you get all the details and watch The Cam Neely Foundation and Boston Bruins websites for details on next year's Neely SK8 Challenge!

Comics Come Home

November 13th, 2010

The Cam Neely Foundation for Cancer Care is in its 16th year of presenting an outrageously funny comedy show, Comics Come Home! Denis Leary has been incredibly generous in donating his time to host the show since it began. Each year, Denis' production company, Apostle, pulls together the best comedians around (preferably originating from Boston!) to also donate their time to help raise money for cancer patients and their families. Such greats as Jimmy Fallon, Lenny Clarke, Adam Ferrara, Jeffrey Ross, Patrice O'Neal, Whitney Cummings and Bill Burr have stood on stage at the Agganis Arena at Boston University and provided an onslaught of humor that leaves the audience in tears from laughing! Last year, for our 15th anniversary, we had a Comics Come Home record-breaking audience of 6,000 people! Get your tickets early so you don't miss out! Join our email list so you'll know when tickets go on sale!
